

Checking essays

When writing an essay it is very important to check the first version. When writing a draft, your main task is to develop arguments, grind the main thoughts and arrange them in a strict sequence, accompanied by illustrative materials or auxiliary data, etc. Writing the first option, give him a day or two to rest, and then return to the work of verification and improvement, on a "fresh head". If you feel that you have written something wrong, then it is better to go straight to a cheap essay writer online and get a ready-made essay in a couple of days.

When checking the essay, first of all, pay attention to the following important points:

First of all, it is important to remember that an essay is a subjective genre, so its evaluation can also be subjective. You should not focus on the entire mass of employers.

Presented data:

No matter what question you answer, you need to achieve certain goals. You are expected to keep this in mind when writing your essay:

- Have I answered the question?
- How clear and accurate have I been in expressing my thoughts?
- Does it sound natural that I have written, that there are no mistakes?

Also make sure that you:

- You have demonstrated your desire to build your career in a certain direction.
- You were "targeting" a career in a certain area.
- Included one to three qualities, strengths, and characteristics that distinguish you from the mass of other candidates.
- Presented at least one strong argument for the employer to invite you into their business.
- Skills of communication / written speech.

Essays are also designed to test your ability to express your thoughts on paper and your writing skills. A selection consultant says: "Your essay should not characterize you as a future writer or philologist, you are a future leader, manager. For success in business it is important to be able to present your ideas well, and the ability to express them on paper is important for those who easily communicate with other people.

A poorly written (presented) essay will not help you to be accepted into business.

The image of a real person.

The expert committee (employer) wants to see in the essay the image of the person who wrote it. Not only the test results and work experience are important, but also the character of the candidate. "We are looking for something elusive in the documents that cannot show numbers, so we hope to find it in the essay. In no case do not miss the opportunity to tell us about yourself in your essays. It will help us to make sure that we are considering a very real person, and not just the sum of the different figures.

The important thing here is to be honest, sincere, unique, i.e. to be yourself!

Experts believe that often graduates, applicants are very eager to seem someone: a leader, a mature person, that they forget to be just a person!

Individuality.

The only way to make the commission (employer) see behind all the documents the image of a particular person is to include in the essay an element of personal, unique, unique. Your essays will immediately become more interesting and appealing. They will help to stand out among the hundreds of other applicants.

"The essay should be as personalized as possible. It is a waste of time to read essays, which abound in common phrases. Anyway, you will not understand anything about the personality of this candidate.

Details.

Everything that you write in an essay, you need to confirm with examples, make references to your experience. Details will make your essay interesting, unique, specific.

Distinctive features / Uniqueness / Something interesting, funny.

According to experts, "graduates (applicants) should not be afraid that they will go beyond what is allowed, it is better to be yourself. Very often alumni worry about whether they will be able to make the right impression, so they take away from the essay everything that makes them outstanding. So safe, from the point of view of the graduates, essays are quite tiring to read.

You don't have to make jokes in your essays to make them interesting. However, try to use all means at your disposal to make your essays memorable.

Honesty.

The expert committee does not tolerate participants who like to dust in the eyes. It would be better if you reflected the true state of affairs in your essay. At the same time, do not focus on your shortcomings, although they are present in your character. It is necessary to be honest, but positive. Talk about yourself and your qualities only positively! The so-called "weaknesses" should be presented in the following way: "This used to be my disadvantage, now it has become a positive quality.

Literary work.

Representatives of expert committees like such essays, which are a pleasure to read. "Make sure that your essay is easy to read. Give it a little more time: check whether your thoughts are consistent, whether they lead to the logical conclusion of the topic.

Humor is a great insanity.

Humor is a great tool, but use it wisely. A sarcastic or impertinent tone is often annoying. Real humor is art, it is a sign of good taste.

In your essays, you tell a story of success, you indicate the reasons why you want to build your career in the direction you have chosen. You can go even further by writing an essay in the form of a literary work: a story, a story. However, this is a risky approach, because most people are not very good writers, in addition, you can also underestimate the seriousness of your narrative. And finally, employers will not invite you into their business just because you are a great storyteller.
